

In an appropriate space, lay out some small soft animal toys in a row.

Demonstrate the activity.

Walk or run up and then hop over the animals, maintaining the hop through the length of the course. Ask the children to hop through the course using big arm movements. Encourage them to try it using their non-preferred foot as well.

Give lots of positive encouragement and reinforcement.