

Ask the children to tuck scarves or braids into their waistbands, creating a tail.

Children can then run around an area and try to steal the scarves off the other children.

If they steal a scarf, they need to place it in a bag or box in the middle of the area. If their scarf is stolen, they can get another scarf from the bag or box, and continue playing.